Volume Three: Fantasy

You've been playing your fantasy campaign for years now. Every session up until now has been the same old thing. But this time is different. This time your players can actually hear the Orcs charge! When your friend's 8th level wizard casts his fireball spell, the room crackles with the roar of the flaming missile! Now your group can hear the eerie mystic sounds of the enchanted forest as they explore it!

Fantasy contains over fifty sound effects based in the swords and sorcery tradition. Designed for all fantasy RPG and LARP games. Take your campaign to the next level. Winner, orcsdrift.com's Best New Product award, Origins 2000.
